PODERI ELIA

Barbaresco Serracapelli DOCG 2007

This outlier wine sparked much controversy at the Nebbiolo blind tastings because of the thickness of its extraction and the darkness of its appearance. Serracapelli is a beautifully rich wine that doesn't necessarily highlight Barbaresco typicity. You'll get opulent aromas of black cherry, spice, leather and moist tobacco. The mouthfeel is rich, round and velvety.

Monica Larner, Wine Enthusiast

Winemaker Federico Stella

LocationPiedmont, Italy

Annual Production 3,600 bottles

