

MARTOCCIA DI LUCA BRUNELLI

Brunello di Montalcino DOCG 2009

91

Points

Luca Brunelli's 2009 Brunello di Montalcino is a very pleasing wine with a round and ripe approach that is softly enhanced by fine layers of baking spice and cigar box. Thanks to the general ripeness of the fruit (and 36 months of oak aging), the wine gives you more to chew on and offers good prospects for a steady aging evolution ahead. This is a very nice proposition from Montalcino. Drink: 2017-2023. (February 2014)
