

BOCELLI FAMILY WINES

Terre di Sandro 2009

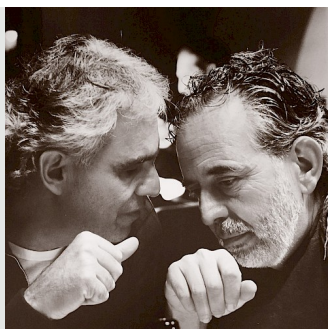

(100% sangiovese): Good full ruby-red. Aromas of cassis, red cherries macerated in alcohol, licorice and chocolatey oak.

Moderately dense and thick, with brooding dark cherry, licorice and chocolate flavors. A bit chunky for this wine in the early going, and with a strong whiff of alcohol on the moderately persistent finish, but shows smooth tannins.

This is a little too ripe for my taste.
