

CURTO

Arborina Barolo DOCG 2011

88
Points

CURTO

This opens with rather funky aromas of scorched earth, overripe black-skinned fruit and a whiff of barnyard. The extracted palate offers mature black cherry, toast, espresso and a gamey note alongside tightly packed tannins. A note of roasted coffee bean signals the close.

Kerin O'Keefe, Wine Enthusiast

Winemaker
Nadia Curto

Location
Piedmont, Italy

Annual Production
5,000 bottles