Fojana Single Cru Chardonnay 2019

The 2019 Fojana Chardonnay was aged for 10 months in 25% new French barriques. It comes in at 14.43% alcohol. This is another fine—and very pricey—Chardonnay from the winery...It has fine depth, focus and precision. It handles the wood well, although there is certainly a bit of hazelnut showing. I loved the long finish...It has a good chance to age well and improve more. There were 1,700 bottles and some magnums produced from 29-year-old vines.
